For the feeds at two, the rocking at four, and the long walk down the hall while the house sleeps.

Thirty nights of the words Jesus spoke, printed in red from the King James Version, each with a short reflection written for a tired parent holding a baby in the half-dark, and a prayer short enough to say with your eyes closed.

- One night per page-turn; read it one-handed
- No order to keep, no night to fall behind on
- Room each night to write what you noticed
- Help lines for when the nights get too dark

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
